Facts and Figures

1. The Cemetery is located in the south-west section of Buckingham, at 216 Church Street.
2. The grounds cover an area of approximately 2.5 acres being lots No. S2-706AC and 376 of the Town cadastre.
3. The administration and maintenance of the Cemetery is under the jurisdiction of Our Lady of Victory Parish.
4. At the present time we know the names of 674 who were buried here, but the total may well be closer to 800 in all when ongoing research is completed.
5. There were, it is believed, a grand total of 200 or so monuments, iron and wooden crosses standing here at one time of which only 44 stones remain and none without some damage.
6. During the last effort in preserving the Cemetery in the early 1980's all bits and pieces of monuments that were found were embedded in the 4 concrete slabs around the central Monument below the 24 memorials which they preserve.
7. of the 44 monuments that remain, a survey shows:
 - that 34 of them are of soft white Canadian marble, of which 29 are embedded in concrete, (24 around the Central Monument and 5 further back) and 5 in a standing position. None of these monuments are in their original place;
 - that 6 are of salt grey stone, all in a standing position and all were re-located except but one;
 - that 3 are of red granite, all standing and in their original place;
 - finally, one is of grey granite and standing where it was originally erected.
8. Amongst those buried here were Mary O'Farrell in 1856 and Ann Brady in 1867, mother and sister respectively, of Father John Brady.
9. The name Church Street dates back to the very beginning of Buckingham, it being the trail from the Village to the Church and Cemetery, located at that time in the outskirts, in the Township of Buckingham. Father John Brady has been honoured by the Town in having the Bridge, a Street and a Park named after him.
10. The Cemetery was officially recognized as an "Historical Site" by the Town by a motion passed at a regular Meeting of the Town Council of Buckingham held September 8th. 1964.
